Southern Cathedrals Festival
18-21 Jul, Salisbury, UK
One of the country’s leading choral festivals comes to Salisbury Cathedral in July 2018 with a programme to mark the centenary of the end of the first world war, and also the death of Hubert Parry, a giant figure in the revival of English church music.
The annual Southern Cathedrals Festival, featuring performances by nearly 100 choristers and twenty-four adult male singers from Chichester, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, takes place at three venues across the city: St Thomas’ Church, Salisbury Cathedral School and Salisbury Cathedral between the 18-22 July.
